

As a 50 year old first time ham I believe the morse requirement should stay with general and extra class licenses but be removed from tech level to provide a place on the band to learn and use morse.